MARK YOUR CALENDARS

03/07 - School Committee presents next year's school budget to Edgecomb's budget committee, 6pm at Town Hall.

03/09 - Performance Festival, gr. 2
@2:05pm

03/13 - Science Club, 2:45-4:30

03/16 - Trimester 2 Report Cards

03/17 - Teacher Workshop Day, NO SCHOOL for students!

For those of you who like to plan ahead, we have had to make changes to the students' Performance Festival schedule, due to having a number of snow days. In hopes of not having any more cancellations due to weather conditions, we offer the following amended schedule for the primary grades:

3/9 - 2nd Grade Performance Festival, 2:05pm

3/23 - 1st Grade Performance Festival, 2:05pm

4/13 - Kindergarten Performance Festival, 2:05pm

Performance Festivals provide a fun, light-hearted opportunity for children to perform in front of their peers and any family members and/or friends who wish to come observe. Join us if you are able.

READ ACROSS AMERICA was Thursday, March 2nd. We are thankful to the following readers who gave of their time to share their love of reading with our children:
Carole Cochran, Margaret Atwood, Nick Azzaretti and Kelly Holbrook.

Lila, of the kindergarten class.

Dr. Suess Day Report

March 2, 2017

Today, March 2 is Dr. Suess Day. To celebrate, a very nice lady named Kelly came to Edgcomb Eddy and read two Dr. Suess books to the fifth grade. The first book she read was called Horton Hatches the Egg. She read with great expression and helped make sure we understood what was going on. This book is funny because Horton, an elephant, sits on an egg until it hatches. It was a good book. The next book Kelly read to us was called The Lorax. This book had lots of silly words in it. The Lorax was trying to get everyone to stop cutting down his Truffula trees. Both books were really funny! Kelly did a great job reading to us.

Illustrations by Emily Gosselin, grade 5.

Student teacher Miss Crocker works with sixth graders Zachary, Kathryn and Madison on their robotics device.

Aliyah and Angie are shown teaching mindfulness 'tree,' and other yoga poses to Mayson and Royce during Mrs. Bezon's RTI group.

Congratulations to School Geography Bee winner Jack Castonia (left) and runner-up Ryan Clark. Both boys are in the sixth grade.

All students in grades 4-6 participated in the bee, held on Friday afternoon.

YARD SALE TIME HAS ARRIVED
APRIL 29, from 8am to noon
at Edgecomb Eddy School

Clean Up, Clean Out
Get rid of stuff, buy stuff
Sell your crafts, buy some crafts

Reserve a Table for $20.00. A table will not be guaranteed until we receive your payment. Please come with your money and commitment; Mrs. Reid has the sign-up sheet in the office.

Advertisement will start in March and continue to the day of the sale.

Set up time: 6 am to 8 am

Rain, Shine or Wind - nothing will stop us now! Location will be weather-dependent.

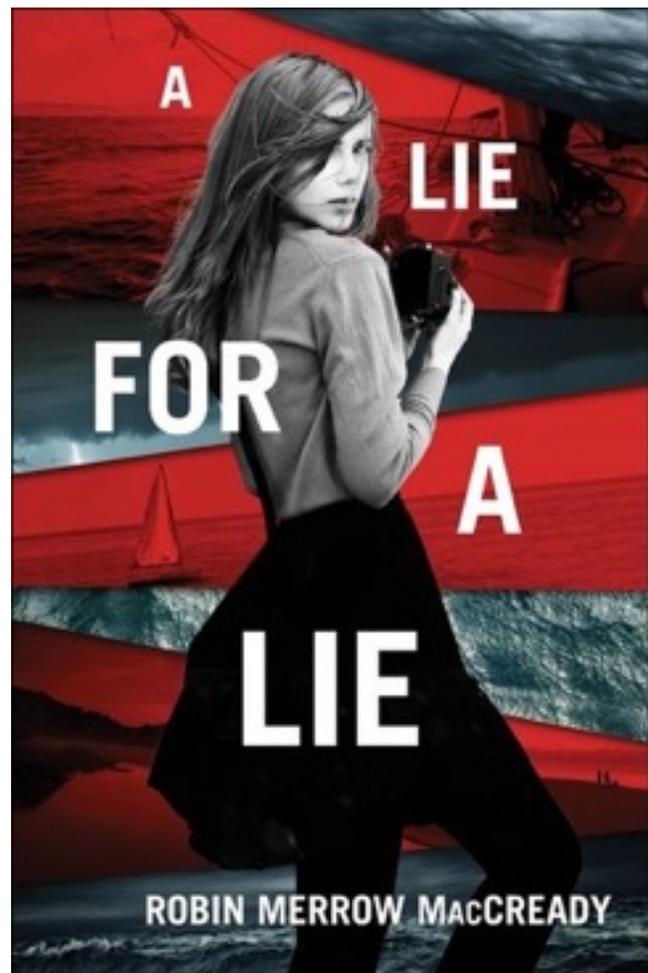

All proceeds from the table rentals go to our Parent-Teacher Club, which benefits the school.

Do you have an interest in running for a position on our school committee? If so, please be aware that nomination papers are available at the town office and are due with at least 25 signatures by April 24th. See Claudia Coffin for this paperwork.

For more information, feel free to contact me (Lisa Clarke), or consider attending an upcoming school committee meeting (watch school calendar for dates).

CONGRATULATIONS to Edgecomb Eddy School's award-winning author,
Robin MacCready.

Mrs. MacCready is our Integrated Studies teacher
and, in her spare time,
writes books. "A Lie for a Lie" was recently published, and she is also the author of the Edgar Award Winning book,
"Buried."

Interested residents are encouraged to attend tomorrow night's budget meeting at the Town Hall, beginning at 6pm. During this meeting, the school committee members, superintendent and I will be sharing our proposed budget for the 2017-18 school year. Please come and make your voices be heard.
